

Sustainability is Good Business

Highlighting Businesses with Sustainability in Mind

featuring: Epic Systems from Verona, WI

May 1, 2018 7:30 - 9:00 AM

Lunda Center, Western Technical College

Over the past 37 years, medical software company Epic Systems of Verona, WI, has enjoyed massive growth—both in the size of their campus and number of employees. Their campus boasts not only the largest green roof and the largest single location, private photovoltaics array in the United States, but also the largest single geo-exchange bore-field. Join us as we learn more from Epic about why they invest in sustainability and how they leverage their sustainability efforts to improve not just the environment, but also employee productivity, recruitment, and retention. Registration is required and a light breakfast will be provided.

REGISTRATION FEES: $20 per seat or $100 for table of 6
